This 37ac property checks a lot of the boxes, it has 2ac of cleared area with good grass that would make a great building site just as you enter the land. There is a 1ac food plot near the back of this heavily wooded parcel with a great well maintained trail system, with a small flowing spring and creek that would be great for wildlife. All of this with highway frontage and electric at the front. Out in the country but just 6miles from a town of 200 people with everything you need including a great hospital. This place is near a lot of ozark treasures like Big Piney river, that is great for floating and fishing, Montauk State Park and thousands of acres of Mark Twain National Park.
