PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A wonderful opportunity to own a recreational self-contained camper lot with .98 +/- acres in Grand Isle, VT. The property features an existing driveway access leading to a nicely leveled, open area – perfect for BBQs, yard games, or simply relaxing around the fire pit with family & friends. Purchasers must check with the local zoning department, but based on zoning info available, the property appears to be able to support multiple self-contained campers. Power is located on the adjoining property, and high-speed internet, cable TV & phone are all available in the area with Xfinity providing services to nearby homes along Champlain Blvd. The property is accessed from the Frigate Road frontage; Brigantine Road is currently undeveloped. Both Frigate Road & Brigantine Road are privately-owned & maintained. The property is ideally suited as a recreational self-contained camper lot due to the type of soils on the land, which are unlikely to support an on-site septic system. For those looking to take advantage of all Lake Champlain has to offer, there are several nearby boat launches & public fishing locations. This property also conveys with an optional membership to the LCPOA – less than a half mile away – for only $100 per year. The membership offers access to a private boat launch, dock & boathouse. Imagine enjoying the views of the lake and VT mountain ridgelines from one of the many picnic tables on the boathouse lawn – all without the commotion of a public boat launch!
