PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Nestled in serene seclusion, this extraordinary property is a harmonious fusion of natural beauty and rustic charm. With the Mark Twain National Forest enveloping three sides, this private haven offers an unparalleled sense of escape and tranquility. Nature's gifts abound, from artesian wells to babbling spring-fed creeks that meander through the landscape, enhancing the idyllic atmosphere. A shimmering pond, its waters fed by crystal-clear springs, beckons with the promise of leisurely afternoons spent fishing for trout. The undulating terrain, punctuated by rolling hills and the majesty of the Ozark Mountains, creates an inviting tableau that seamlessly integrates with the surroundings. The property's thoughtful layout ensures an optimal arrangement, while a sizable spring fed 7-acre lake teems with bass, bluegill, and catfish, providing a haven for anglers and enthusiasts alike. It has also been stocked with trout. For those seeking the rustic charm of a bygone era, a lovingly and extensively restored 1930s log cabin stands as a testament to timeless architecture, along with a second residence. The carefully curated dwelling on the property are thoughtfully plumbed with the purest spring water, seamlessly blending modern comfort with the essence of the land. Each dawn bathes the landscape in a golden hue, offering breathtaking sunrises that cast a warm glow over the spring-fed creek. The Spring produces 300k gallons of fresh spring water daily! This haven is an equestrian and agricultural paradise, boasting expansive pastures adorned with luscious grasses. Fenced and crossed-fenced, it presents an exceptional canvas for cattle or horses to graze and roam. The land's rich fertility and vibrant energy echo through the mature forests, providing an excellent backdrop for hunting enthusiasts. Black bear and the occasional mountain lion gracefully traverse these lands, sharing their realm with stately mature white-tailed deer. Located in a remote sanctuary, this property spans nearly 500 acres of unspoiled pasture and timberland. Its proximity to the recreational offerings of the Mark Twain Forest and various MDC sites ensures that every day brings a new adventure, whether it's hiking, fishing, or simply basking in the embrace of nature's splendor. This is an opportunity to own slice of unspoiled paradise, where the rhythms of the natural world set the pace and the senses are awakened by the beauty that surrounds.
