PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Discover 240 pristine acres in Phelps County, MO, featuring stunning frontage along the crystal-clear Little Piney River, located in the renowned yellow ribbon trophy trout section. This section is teeming with yellow trout, making it a paradise for anglers. The property offers excellent opportunities for kayaking and canoeing. The land is adorned with mature timber and boasts a walnut tree farm in progress, with valuable plantings carefully managed by the owner. The intricate conservation value of this property is a must-see. A well-maintained pole barn provides ample storage for all your outdoor equipment and a well maintained loafing shed. Experience the breathtaking sight of the river bottom enveloped in fog at sunrise—a view that will leave you in awe. The property includes a rustic sheik well built cabin, perfect for a cozy retreat. The meticulously designed gravel driveway and trail system make navigating the property a pleasure, giving it the feel of a private park. This is an exceptional opportunity to own a piece of natural beauty with abundant recreational possibilities. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity with great building sites and views of the bottomland and bluff top views.
