PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The Curly Hole at Peterball Springs is the perfect recreational retreat sought after by so many. Surrounded by Mark Twain National Forest on all sides makes this land is a dream come true and even has a live water creek fed by the Peterball Springs. The land lays like it's much larger with its Ozark hills and valleys situated along the creeks of this picturesque landscape. The property is loaded with deer and turkeys and all kinds of small game and has an extensive trail system in place for your utvs or atvs or even horses. There are 2-One acre food plots, 2-insulated ground blinds, and 2 tree stands. The pole barn style building complete with over ten overhead garage doors makes it secure but also the perfect open-air design for those summertime fun activities this area offers, like floating and fishing in the Current River, Jacks Fork, or The Upper Meramec. Those rivers are loaded with the elusive and ever so hard fighting small mouth bass and to add to that your only minutes to Montauk Trout Fishery one of best in the state, now back to the awesome pole barn which is insulated and has a concrete floor and right outside the doorstep is a full fire pit with a built in grill for family good time camp outs and enjoying the great outdoors. The pavillion even has solar power. This area even has a black bear population and every so often someone sights a cougar or bobcat and is so close to the elk restoration area in Missouri and yes you can have a chance at a bear or elk tag. This is a such a rich recreational destination with State Parks, MDC lands and National Forest Lands that make it as endless playground for the outdoorsmen. Come take a look!
